Giant Sale of Books and Media In February

The next Friends of the Olympia Library Giant Sale of Books and Media will be on February 10 and 11, 2018, in the meeting room at the Olympia Library. Set up for the sale will be on Thursday and Friday, February 8 and 9, 2018. As always, there is a large need for volunteers to work on all aspects of the sale: set up (Thursday, Friday & Saturday morning), during the sale hours at the sale table and room monitoring and finally, clean up on Sunday at 4 p.m. If you can spare an hour or two, contact the FOL Volunteer Coordinator, Jen Merrill, volunteers@olympiafriends.com. Jen will also be sending out an email asking for volunteers about 3 weeks prior to the sale and will gladly add names to the schedule at that time.

Any questions about donating books and media to the Friends can be directed to the FOL Sale Coordinator Irene Osborn irene.bookworm@gmail.com.

On page 3 of this newsletter is a flyer for the sale. Please print copies (will work in black and white) to spread the word at places you work or visit.

What's Happening at the Library

The Adult Winter Reading Program has taken on a new look this year at the Olympia Library. Borderless Reading: Adult Winter Reading 2018 is embarking on a different kind of journey. Spend your reading hours globetrotting to far-away lands and win some prizes along the way.

For each stop on your trip either chose a category or read a book set in, written by an author from or about a country represented in a stop from the itinerary. Complete each leg (continent) of your journey for a prize entry and a free book from the Friends of the Olympia Library ongoing book sale. Completing the whole trip will earn five extra entries.

Intrigued? Stop by the Olympia Library Information/Reference Desk to pick up the brochure. Stymied? Ask the knowledgeable staff for good titles, either fiction or nonfiction, to move your journey along.

Grand prizes will be from local businesses Browser Books, Buck's Fifth Avenue, Olympia Film Society, Orca Books and Traditions Fair Trade Store.

*The mission of the Friends is "To support, promote and augment the operations of the Olympia Library".
