Volunteers Achieve Amazing Results

After months of presorting, sorting, storing, two hectic days of sale room set up and two sale days, the net result was $2,101.63 in proceeds for the Olympia Library to use for programming and upgrades. None of this could be done without the Friends of the Olympia Library volunteers. In addition to the presort crew, ongoing sale volunteers and the Thursday Sorters, those who worked on the set up and sale days were Britt Nederhood, John Nunn, Denis Ganey, Irene Osborn, Jen Merrill, Rob Harper, Terrence Linn, Janine Linn, Lee Blankenship, Linda Mulhall, Sheila Griffith, Sandra Schafer, Richard Geier, Linda Nicholas, Suska Davis, Marcia Naismith, Sandra Schafer, Robert Smith, Wally O'Shea, Robert Keiser, Lane Clausen, Beth Dubey, Vikki Bayman, Lila Sjodin, Joan Boileau, Melanie Tyler, Peter Shaughnessy, Sue Goldstein, Mary Belz, Doug Ellis, Patsy Ellis, Peg Wehrle, Todd Stamm, Gayle Newsome, Keith Newsome, Elvia Castaneda, Rose Jeter, Mel Jeter, Zach Goldstein, Sue Hedrick, Wanda Hedrick, Walker Hedrick, and John Cann.

Check out page 3 of this newsletter for pictures of our volunteers at work and FOL's new sorting space. On page 4 Beth Dubey has created a review of the FOL for 2017, just to let everyone know where the money from the book sales is spent.

Thank you, Carol Smith!

After many years of stocking the courtesy paperback spinners, Carol Smith is changing direction and will be devoting her time to new endeavors. This collection has been a service to library patrons who didn't have library cards, were going on vacation or otherwise needed a book without a due date. It was Carol's job to choose books from FOL donations of mass market paperbacks, label them and shelve them on the spinner racks at the front and back of the library. Her many years of volunteer service are much appreciated.

What's Happening at the Library

by Library Manager Morgan Sohl

After helping him fix his library card's PIN, a patron came back to let me know that he used to work for the Olympia Public Works department and came to the library to do maintenance/cleaning at least once a week. He said he stopped using the library for a while because the atmosphere wasn't pleasant, but he wanted to let me know that he was pleasantly surprised today. He commented about how open and welcoming it feels! He also said that every time visited he loved to pet the otter statue.

This morning a patron with her son about 4-5 years old came up to the Information Desk, and said "you helped us find books on ships last week." Nothing unusual in our job, so it didn't register in my head right away what she wanted. But then, she pulled up her I-phone and started to show me the photos of the ships her son made based on those books she got! They were amazing, and I was delighted to meet this patron again who may be a ship-building giant some day!

A young patron approached the return desk with his mom. He handed a volcanic rock to Ali and me because he really appreciated all of the neat things that we have in the library to checkout. Ali and I both expressed our excitement over the rock. His mom looked at us and said "he's already ran off". I assured her that I still thought it was pretty awesome that he gave us such a treasure. She was very grateful for our enthusiasm.

LOVED being in the library recently....The vibe was exceptionally warm and friendly and inviting! We are so impressed and grateful for all of the excellent work you and your colleagues are clearly doing to make it so. Thanks, Mare
