

Friends of the Olympia Library Newsletter

April 2022

What's new?

Save the date. Annual meeting set for May 10

Beginning at 1 p.m., May 10, Friends of the Olympia Library will meet to elect officers for the coming year. Any Friends members who have paid dues in the past year are invited to attend.

The brief meeting will be at the downtown Olympia library branch, 313 Eighth Ave. S.E. (corner of Franklin Street and Eighth Avenue). In addition to electing officers, Friends will discuss other business as needed.

To date, those nominated are Jann Hoppler, president; Peter Sweet, vice president; Melanie Tyler, treasurer; Amanda Mackison, secretary; and Pat Harper, Rose Jeter and Beth Dubey, board members at large. Nominations also can be made from the floor at the meeting.

New library hours begin in May!

Some changes are afoot.

Beginning in May, the downtown branch will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. (opening an hour earlier than the current time, giving you more time to browse our sales shelves).

The westside branch will be open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday through Sunday.

Thanks from Library workers!

Library workers put a recent, and very generous donation to good use including supplies for take and makes and winter reading prizes, a light table to be used for intergenerational activities and a much-needed dishwasher for the staff room. The wish to say thanks for this donation and the many other ways we support them!

Friends of the Olympia Library news blurbs

Help still needed! Friends of the Olympia Library will have a booth at the Secondhand Safari April 23 at the Thurston County Fairgrounds. Volunteers are needed on April 22 to ferry books from our storage area to the Fairgrounds and to help set up. On the 23rd, volunteers are needed to staff the booth during the sale and to help clear everything. It's too early to schedule now, but if you're interested, please let us know at fol73volunteers@gmail.com

We will be in Booth 135 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. with books, CDs and DVDs. From 4-5 p.m. you can fill a bag that we provide for $5.

Another huge donation of CDs has arrived comprising almost any genre you can think of: classical, movie sound tracks, classic rock, popular, country, hymns, chants and more. Funeral jazz anyone? You can find them near the sales shelves for 50 cents each.
