FOL Bookstore is Open!

As of the 14th of April, the Friends of the Olympia Library book sale is open in our new space (used to be the Youth Services office) which combines the book sale and sorting in one place. Donations and sorting are on the right side of the entrance and the book sale is on the left except for children's books which are just outside the door. The cashbox is still next to the fire extinguisher to the right of the Book Store. There is a free cart in the back hall.

The book store is open from 10am-6 pm, Monday to Saturday.
